

Session 1

Pacific Island Countries Clean Energy and Climate Adaptation /Resilience Needs and Opportunities

Climate resilience needs of Pacific Island Countries

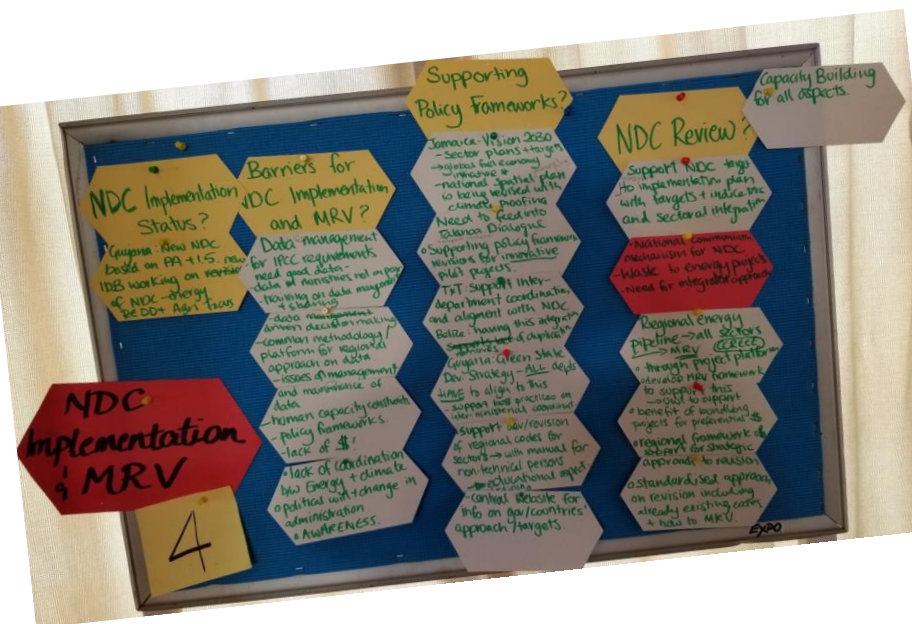

March 22 @ 1-2 pm Hawaii / March 23 @ 8-9 am Japan/Palau, 12-1 pm Samoa

Rupeni Mario, Secretariat of the Pacific Regional Environment Programme

- Adaptation /Resilience needs in the Pacific
- Opportunities and limitations

Presentation Focus

The Pacific and Climate Change

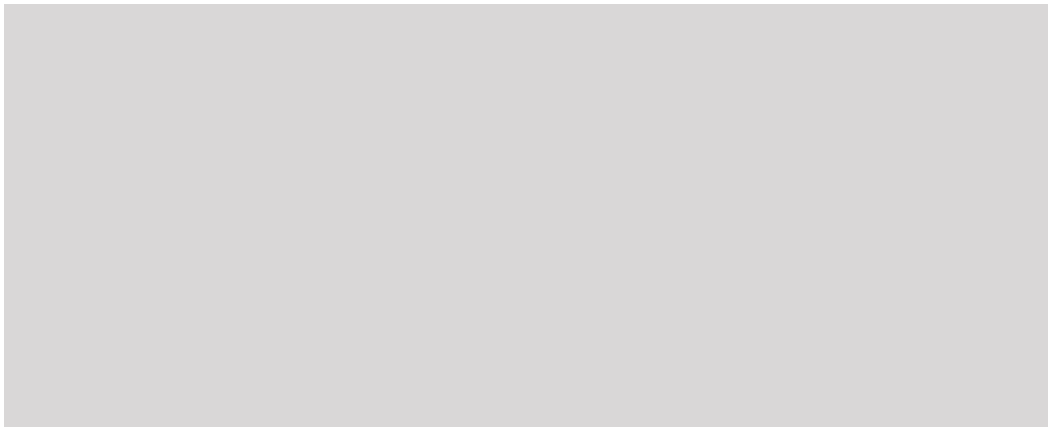

Vulnerability of Pacific Island Countries

a reminder

Flooding in Fiji

How are the Pacific Island Countries responding to climate resilience needs?

In Fiji, communities have been relocated due to climate change impacts

Improved infrastructure in Palau

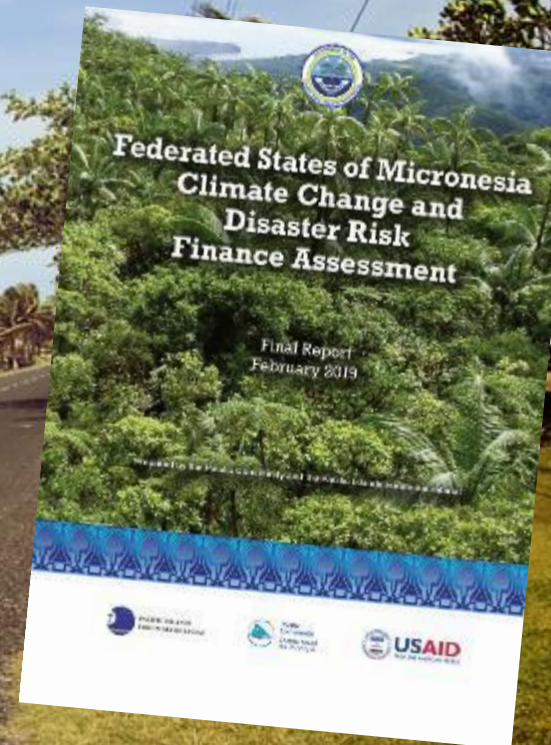

Continuous rehabilitation works at the causeway
Pohnpei, Federated States of Micronesia

READINESS & PREPARATORY SUPPORT PROPOSAL TEMPLATE

Proposal title:	National Adaptation Planning in the Federated States of Micronesia
Country:	Federated States of Micronesia (FSM)
National designated authority:	Department of Finance and Administration
Implementing institution:	Secretariat of the Pacific Regional Environment Programme (SPREP)
Date of first submission:	22 February 2022
Date of current submission:	22 February 2022 11:01

Climate Change related activities in Tonga

Distributing tanks at Havelu

Distributing tanks at Kahoua

In Summary

- Finance
- Expertise /Specialists
- Action

Already have:

100s of Assessments

Lots of policies and action plans

Leaders' support

Solar PV micro-grid system on the island of Rotuma, Fiji

Thank you